

To Whom It May Concern,

28 January 2023

We have worked with Prominations Advertising as has worked with us as our partner for Out of Home media placement particularly on Transit Advertising and Printing for the past four years.

Prominations Advertising has excelled in delivering quality print work and best in class transit partners and routes for our various campaigns during this period.

Over the period we have been engaged with Prominations, they have proven themselves to be professional, principled and accommodating of our needs with a high degree of integrity.

We recommend Prominations Advertising as a service provider, without reservation.
